

Kids on Public Lands

September 22nd & 23rd, 2018

Where: Camp Conrad-Chinnock, Barton Flats

Who Benefits: 100 underprivileged children

The 2018 KOPL Organizing Committee is proud to announce the dates for the 21st year of the Kids on Public Lands Program. This event is made possible by donations from companies and individuals, the dedicated work of nearly 100 volunteers, the efforts of the Anaheim Police Department, the Anaheim YMCA and the San Bernardino National Forest. In 2018 we will again bring 100 kids (boys and girls) from the inner city up to the Forest. Most of these kids have never been to the mountains.

The Annual KOPL program will begin with a bus ride from Anaheim, CA to the Camp Conrad-Chinnock in the Barton Flats area of the San Bernardino National Forest. The children are given a ride in a 4x4 vehicle along Forest Service Trail in the mountains. After the ride, they will be treated to a BBQ lunch prepared by volunteers. In the afternoon, the kids will have several nature and history presentations including a nature talk, a hands-on geology experience, a hike to learn about the forest and gold panning activities. Each child will be given a “goodie” bag and a snack at the end of the day.

Some items that we need donated for the two-day event:

- “Goodie bag” giveaways for children such as hats, T-shirts, sunscreen, coolies, coupons, toiletries, first aid items, toothbrushes/toothpaste, wet wipes, toys, amusement park tickets, etc. We need 125 of each item.
- Drinks, dry ice, ice, snacks, food items such as bakery goods, hamburger meat, hot dogs, candy, chips, potato salad, coleslaw, condiments, fruit, tomatoes, etc.
- Donations of money for meals and expenses for any items not donated.
